Chief Secretary

Panjim, 18th July, 1967.

Bye-Laws of the Temple «Shri Bhumika Panchayatan» and its Affiliates Anjunkares, situated at Mandrem, Pernem Taluka

CHAPTER I

Of the Institution

Article 1—In the village of Mandrem, Pernem Taluka, there is the Temple of Shri Bhumika Panchayatan and its affiliates.

Art. 2—The Body of Mahajans of the said Temple is composed of individuals of the class of Vaishayas of surname Porobo.

CHAPTER II

Of the rights and duties of Mahajans

Art. 3—All the mahajans are Hindu Gaunkars of the Comunidade of Anjuna, male, enjoy rights, honours, pre-eminence and equal privileges, without preference over others for the purposes of religious worship and other acts of adoration.

Art. 4—The right of mahajans is hereditary and permanent for the families of mahajans mentioned in the attached list (catalogue), it being transmitted from generation to generation to the male descendants by blood relationship and to those adopted under the provisions of law and with observance of the religious rite. Besides this all the mahajans of age who may be elected, have to perform honorary service and for the welfare of the Temple.

CHAPTER III

Of the funds, receipts and expenditure

Art. 5—The following constitute fund of the Temple:

1. The landed properties and «Morodd» paddy-fields held at present and which it may come to hold;

2. The Buildings of the Temple;

3. One image of Goddess Shri Bhumika Panchayatan existing since remote times in Anjuna in the «Chouki» and the place denominated as «Dazana» and all the articles enumerated in the inventory.

Art. 6 — The receipts consist in: —

1. Rents from properties;
2. Rates of worship acts;
3. Proceeds from offerings and donations;
4. Any receipts of eventual source, Zatra and others;
5. Proceeds from entrance fees and contributions of mahajans.

Art. 7 — The expenditure consists in:

1. Maintenance and cleanliness of the temple;
2. Local proportionate tax and other liabilities;
3. Remuneration of the attendants;
4. Expenses of worship and festivals;
5. Any other expenses sanctioned in the budget.

CHAPTER IV

Of the worship and festivals

Art. 8 — The festivals and other ceremonies which are celebrated in the Temple are:

Festivals:

1. Procession of Palanquim from Mandrem to Anjuna with Goddess Shri Bhumika on the twelfth day of the month of «Chaitra» up to the sixth day of the second fortnight of the said month «Chaitra» as of time-honoured custom.
2. Anniversary of the blessing of the sacred installation of all the images on the 12th day of Vaisnaka.
3. One «Mathan» in the month of Ashada.
4. That of four «Puja» on four Mondays of the month of Shravana.
5. That of «Dassera» till Pournima of the month of Ashvin.
6. That of «Diuzan» on the last day of the month of «Kartika».
7. That of «Zatra» and «Kalo» on sixth day of the second fortnight of the month of Margashirsh.

Art. 9 — Every day there shall be «Shodashopacharpuja» «Nandadip» (a permanent flame) and «Naivedya» with offering of rice in the Temple of Bhumika Panchayatan and on the day of festivals the «Abhishek» shall be celebrated.

Art. 10 — The Mahajans and any other individuals who may wish to get any religious acts celebrated, shall pay the concerned rates and collect their receipts in token of payment.

CHAPTER V

Of the attendants and their duties

Art. 11 — The following are attendants of the Temple: —

- a) Gurav — to perform religious ceremonies.
- b) Priest performing the Puja — Puja, Naivedya, Mahanaivedya and other religious acts — to receive 2 quintals of paddy and amount of 40 rupees per annum.

- c) Deuli, Bavina; to kindle the lights, arati and Diuti, and to look after the cleanliness of the Temple buildings.
- d) Jogui; to play «Shankh» in the tent of the Zatra and other customary performances.

The attendants Jogui and Deuli shall partake half-and-half of the usufruct, as remuneration for their services, of the property «Batulem» of paddy crop and fruit-bearing trees, each of them paying the annual rent of one quintal of paddy to the priest celebrating puja, with the produce of the property, keeping the surplus yield for themselves.

Art. 12 — Admission for the work of Deuli and Jogui shall be given to persons, with the following conditions: —

- a) He must be the eldest male member of the family;
- b) He must be a resident in the property of the Temple.

CHAPTER VI

Penalties

Art. 13 — The mahajan who may commit offences or wrongful action or act indecorously in the Temple or disturb the order and peace in the meetings of mahajans, shall be, by resolution taken by the body of mahajans, deprived of the right of mahajan for a period that the said body of mahajans may judge necessary; this period cannot exceed six months and in case of reincidence, he shall be excluded from the catalogue (list). He may however be re-admitted when he shows himself repented before the body of mahajans and pays to the treasury a fine ranging from five to fifteen rupees, according as decided upon by the body of mahajans.

Art. 14 — The mahajan who make commit offences or wrongful action shall be punished under penalty of the law.

CHAPTER VII

General Provisions

Art. 15 — Hindus of any class are allowed, according to their customs and usages, to render worship, institute festivals and to make donations to the Temple. Such acts shall not, however, entitle them to be mahajans.

Art. 16 — In case of any extraordinary and urgent expenditure that the treasury of the Temple may not be able to bear, money shall be collected by subscription from amongst the mahajans by resolution of the mahajan body. For that purpose in the same act a committee shall be appointed consisting of three suitable mahajans, who shall be jointly responsible for the money collected.

1 — Any person is allowed to contribute to the said subscription as a simple devotee.

2 — The list which the mahajans and devotees may subscribe, shall have at the top a clear indication of the purpose for which are intended the proceeds from subscription and also the embossed seal or rubber-stamp of the Temple. The list that does not have these requisites shall be deemed to be a fake list.

Art. 17 — All the mahajans shall meet every year on the day of Chaitra Shudha Pournima in order to discuss on matters of benefit to and welfare of the Temple.

Art. 18 — The body of Mahajans is subject to the rules and regulations in force and those that may be promulgated in future.

Art. 19 — No sooner these bye-laws are sanctioned by Government than they shall be registered in the concerned book in Portuguese and in Marathi and they shall come into force five days after their publication in the Government Gazette.

Art. 20 — It is for the body of mahajans to decide upon matters inherent to the cult which may not have been especially allotted to the executive committee, as well as to alter or introduce amendments in these bye-laws in accordance with the procedure laid down under the law.

Art. 21 — In cases in which there may not be any provision in these bye-laws the procedure followed as formerly shall be adhered to in so far as it does not contravene the provisions of the law.
